

The FCC should not lessen the power of the states to implement their own telephone privacy laws. The Indiana law has greatly influenced how we have received our calls. It has been very beneficial to our family having an uninterrupted dinner. Thank you for your ocnsideration in this matter.